Just Remember to Breathe is a sweet, cute and meaningful story with substance, but relatively little angst. It's one of the most heartwarming second-chance stories I have ever read. It's part of the Thompson Sisters series, but can be read as a standalone. I read it after finishing the third book in the series, because I just couldn't get enough of the characters and their world.

JUST REMEMBER TO BREATHE has been written to perfection from the easy language to the way that seemingly simple writing style grabs your heart, squeezes and then bursts you into millions of pieces. But then there's the romance, and it develops, not enhanced by hot sex. Don't expect to love this book only for
