Inspirational stories about courage. Late in the evening I was walking in the park. Suddenly I heard scream coming from behind bushes. I stopped to listen and understood that a woman was attacked. I heard sounds of fighting and muttering. For several moments I was hesitating, should I get involved? I panicked. I was frightened for my own safety.

There are eight true stories in this book. All of them give us courage. "Runnin for her Life" is the most memorable story for me. Ana Fidelia Quirot was a famous runner, but one day she was close to death because of burn injury. But she never gave up running and underwent rehabilitation so hard. Finally, she won the silver medal in Atlanta Olympic Games.

This is the story of a young American soldier named Henry Fleming. When he is a boy, he dreams of going to war. He thinks that war is an adventure. He wants to be a hero. When he is older, his country is at war. The north of the country is fighting against the south. Everyone is always talking about the war. The newspapers are full of stories about great
